Second Stop: Domaine Christophe Pichon – A Family Estate with a Rich History

Next, we visited the esteemed Christophe Pichon estate, a family-run property since 1962. With 12 hectares of vineyards in Saint-Joseph, the estate produces two red wines and one white. The “Palisse” cuvée stands out as it hails from the northernmost plot of the appellation, with the rare distinction of holding both Saint-Joseph and Condrieu designations. A must-try! With six appellations and 200,000 bottles produced annually, the quality of their wines speaks for itself.
